

Bean, Kinney & Korman Recognized with Ethics Award from Leadership Arlington

5/21/15

Bean, Kinney & Korman, P.C. was honored last night with the Ethics Award from Leadership Arlington as part of its Leadership Legacy Awards on May 20.

Christian Lapham, who also graduated from Leadership Arlington's Signature Program last night as part of the class of 2015, accepted the award on behalf of the firm.

"It is a great honor to receive the Ethics Award as part of Leadership Arlington's Leadership Legacy Awards," said Tim Hughes, executive managing shareholder at Bean, Kinney & Korman. "Our firm and our lawyers pride themselves on a well-deserved reputation for sterling ethics and to be recognized for such by an organization like Leadership Arlington is particularly gratifying."

Leadership Arlington selects the recipients for its Leadership Legacy Awards for their demonstration of leadership in the community and for support of the organization's mission "to enlighten, inspire and connect" community leaders. In addition, award recipients demonstrate leadership capacity, show visionary thinking and demonstrate ethics in thoughts, words and actions. Leadership Arlington has given out these awards since 2006.
