Liz Nohra was hired in June 2010 as Leadership Arlington’s Chief Operating Officer. As Chief of External Relations at Leadership Center for Excellence, Liz is responsible for recruitment, planning and implementation of the Leadership Arlington and Young Professionals Programs, and management of all membership offerings. Additionally, Liz supports the advancement of the LCE mission by growing relationships with organizations throughout the region.

Liz received her Bachelor’s degree from Youngstown State University and Master’s degree from the Cooperstown Graduate Program in Museum Studies. Prior to moving to the DC Metro Area, Liz served in executive positions in museums, first at the Mahoning Valley Historical Society as Assistant Director, and then as Executive Director of the Children’s Museum of the Valley. She was named a “40 under 40” honoree in 2005 by the Community Foundation of the Mahoning Valley and Mahoning Valley Professionals 20/30 for which she was a founding board member. She has also served on the boards of the Boys and Girls Club of Youngstown, the YWCA, and the Junior League of Youngstown. Liz is a proud graduate of Leadership Mahoning Valley Class of 2005.

Nohra moved to Northern Virginia in 2008 and accepted a position at Leadership Fairfax, Inc. until becoming Chief Operating Officer at Leadership Center for Excellence. She is a resident of South Arlington and lives in Arlington Village.
